

STUDIO GALLERY & SECRET TEA GARDEN

TAJ ART INC

Art, tea and a little wonder. Always for the animals.

PRESS FACT SHEET / OCTOBER 2026

ABOUT

TAJ ART INC is a studio gallery and secret tea garden in Eagle Rock, Los Angeles, founded by artist, musician and author Trace Fryer and producer, engineer and musician John Fryer. TAJ ART, Inc was established on February 14, 2016.

THE GARDEN

The Rams Horn Secret Tea Garden takes its name from the tea room opened here by educator Miss Anne Loomis Shepard in the summer of 1934. The garden includes the Bramhall Labyrinth, Temple Stables and the Eldritch Forest. Visits are by reservation or invitation.

ART, MUSIC & GATHERINGS

The Studio Gallery presents paintings, drawings, photographs and curiosities. Trace and John record as Something Romantical Affect. Garden offerings include Saturday Tea-Easy, small wedding ceremonies and elopements, seasonal shows, and film and photo inquiries.

CREATURES OF BEING

TAJ ART INC is a benefit corporation. A portion of acquisitions and event proceeds supports animal welfare organizations around the world. The garden is a Certified National Wildlife Federation sanctuary.

CURRENT VISITOR NOTICE

The garden is being restored after the windstorm. Tea-Easy reservations and garden weddings reopen when restoration is complete. A reopening date has not been announced. Please contact TAJ ART INC before planning a visit.
